UNITED STATES
FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C.

ORDER

This matter is before this Court for review of DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] and the amendments to DNI/AG 702(g) Certifications [REDACTED]. On [REDACTED] 2011, and again on [REDACTED] 2011, the Court, on the motion of the United States, extended the time limits established by 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(1)(B) and (C) for this Court to complete its review of, and issue orders under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, the above-referenced Certifications. The current deadline is September 20, 2011.

Given the complexity of the issues presented in these matters coupled with the Court's need to fully analyze the supplemental information provided by the government in recent filings, the last of which was submitted to the Court on September 13, 2011, the Court will not be able to complete its review of, and issue orders under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] and the amendments to DNI/AG 702(g) Certifications [REDACTED] by September 20, 2011. On September 13, 2011, the Court orally informed the government that it intended to issue a one-week extension. The government informed the Court that, for technical reasons, such a brief extension would compromise the government's ability to ensure a seamless transition from one Certification to the next. Instead, the government requested that the Court issue an extension for a longer period of time.

Title 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(j)(2) permits this Court, by order for reasons stated, to extend, as necessary for good cause in a manner consistent with national security, the time limit for this Court to issue orders under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] and the amendments to DNI/AG 702(g) Certifications [REDACTED]

By operation of 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(5)(B), the authorization in the certification to be reauthorized, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] continues beyond its stated expiration date until this Court issues an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED].<sup>1</sup>

This Court finds that there is good cause to extend the time limit for its review of DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] and the amendments to DNI/AG 702(g)

Certifications [REDACTED] beyond September 20, 2011, and that such extension is consistent with national security.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, pursuant to 50 U.S.C.

§ 1881a(j)(2), that the time limit for this Court to complete its review of, and issue orders under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] and the amendments to DNI/AG 702(g) [REDACTED] is EXTENDED to October 10, 2011.

ENTERED this 14th day of September, 2011.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C.

NOTICE OF EXTENSION

This matter is before this Court under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(j)(2) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("the Act"). This Court hereby extends the time limit established by 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(1)(B) for this Court to complete its review of, and issue an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED]. In issuing this extension, this Court has considered the following:

1. DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] reauthorizes DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] which had an expiration date of [REDACTED] 2011.
2. The government submitted DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] to the Court on [REDACTED] 2011.
3. The current deadline for the Court to complete its review of, and issue an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] is September 20, 2011.

4. 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(j)(2) permits this Court, by order for reasons stated, to extend, as necessary for good cause in a manner consistent with national security, the time limit for this Court to issue an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3).

5. By operation of 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(5)(B), the authorization in the certification to be reauthorized, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] continues until this Court issues an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED].

This Court has found, for the reasons set forth in its separate order of this date in the above-captioned matter, that there is good cause to extend the time limit for its review of DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] beyond September 20, 2011, and that such extension is consistent with national security. Accordingly, the time limit for this Court to complete its review of, and issue an order under 50 U.S.C. § 1881a(i)(3) concerning, DNI/AG 702(g) Certification [REDACTED] has been extended to October 10, 2011.

Signed this 14th day of September, 2011.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The text suggests that a consistent and thorough record-keeping system is essential for identifying trends and making informed decisions.

Next, the document addresses the issue of budgeting. It explains that a well-defined budget helps in controlling costs and maximizing resources. By setting clear financial goals and limits, individuals and organizations can avoid overspending and ensure that their financial plans are realistic and achievable. The text provides practical tips on how to create and stick to a budget, such as tracking expenses and adjusting the budget as needed.

The third section focuses on the importance of regular financial reviews. It states that periodic assessments of financial performance allow for the identification of areas that need improvement. This process involves comparing actual results against the budget and analyzing the reasons for any variances. The document encourages a proactive approach to financial management, where potential issues are addressed before they become major problems.

Finally, the document discusses the role of technology in modern financial management. It highlights how digital tools and software can streamline processes, reduce errors, and provide real-time insights into financial data. From automated invoicing to cloud-based accounting systems, technology offers a wide range of solutions to enhance financial efficiency and accuracy. The text concludes by encouraging the adoption of these tools to stay competitive in today's fast-paced business environment.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and transfers between accounts.

The second part of the document provides a detailed explanation of the double-entry accounting system. It describes how every transaction is recorded in two accounts, one as a debit and one as a credit, ensuring that the accounting equation remains balanced. This system is essential for identifying errors and maintaining the accuracy of the books.

The third part of the document outlines the steps for preparing financial statements. It covers the process of adjusting entries, which are necessary to recognize revenues and expenses in the period they are earned or incurred, regardless of when cash is received or paid. These adjustments are crucial for producing accurate income statements, balance sheets, and statements of equity.

The final part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls. It explains how a well-designed system of internal controls can help prevent errors and fraud, protect assets, and ensure the reliability of financial information. Key components of internal controls include segregation of duties, authorization, and regular reconciliations.
