This report was collected by a NIC Field Exploitation Team on 13 February 1968 in SAIGON City, SVN. Source is not available at the NIC for further exploitation.
1. While visiting his mother for Tet on 30 January 1968, he heard that Viet Cong (VC) had come to the village. He immediately boarded a bus at 1200 hours. VC stopped the bus along Route 5, and abducted and 12 other people. The VC then led them to a village whose name he did not know, where a 200-man VC group was quartered, and saw rifles, but did not know their make. The 200-man unit moved out on 31 January with the 12 other impressed people carrying the ammunition in wooden boxes. The group moved to the PHU DINH area.

2. On arrival there, the ammunition bearers were told to evacuate the wounded to a village between the RACH CAT Road and PHU DINH. They made seven trips, each man carrying a wounded soldier per trip. At 0600 hours, 1 February, began his eighth trip, government of Vietnam (GVN) aircraft bombed the PHU DINH area.
