1. The QUANG DA-DANANG Special Zone was established during November and December 1967 to take charge of all military/political activities within the zone at the request of the Central Vietnam (TRUONG BO) Staff, an organization which ranks over VIET CONG (VC) Military Region V. Its creation was a response to the large and modern character of the Government of Vietnam and Allied forces in the area, including the large installations in DANANG Municipality. Considered fully developed by January 1968, the Special Zone is composed of 11 Districts: VC HOA VANG, DHAN BAI, DAI UC, DUY XUYEN, TAY GIANG, BAC GIANG, NAM GIANG, HOI and Districts 1, 2 and 3. District 1 runs from the HUE conjunction to THUY TU, District 2 falls within DANANG Municipality, and District 3 comprises the DONG GIANG area of NHON NUOC. TAY GIANG, BAC GIANG and NAM GIANG are newly created districts which the VC established in the mountainous areas and are bounded by the THUONG DUC River. Of the 11 districts, District 2 is considered as the most critical. The VC cadre of District 2 will comprise the DANANG Administrative Committee if the VC succeed in their offensive.

2. The Special Zone has both a headquarters base command staff and a mobile staff. The mobile staff is composed of about 20 officers who have one 15-watt radio, and who operate in DUY XUYEN, DAI LOC, and GO NOI areas. The command level, located at QUE SON Mountain, DUY XUYEN, is staffed by the following personnel:
